Question: People have been following the theologies of Jesus Christ for the past 19 Centuries. How do we know that this man was who He said He was?

Answer: The answer to this question is very simple. He fulfilled the GOLDEN CRITERIA of a promised one of God. This Golden Criteria is essential in identifying the True promised ones of God, from those who are merely pretenders sent by themselves.

The Golden Criteria is that all of the Promised Ones of God have been foretold by the prophets that came before them. They were identified by these prophets by NAME, DATE, ADDRESS, and what they are going to accomplish when they get here, or their MISSION.

This is like a common business card. When you look at a business card, it will have the name, occupation (mission) the address, and when the person will be there, on it.

If you go to that address, at the time specified on the card, for the purpose specified on the card, and an individual stood there and told you that he was the one whose name is on the card, would you reject him as being that individual simply because he didn't fulfill your imaginations about what he would look like or be like? No. You would not. The true Promised Ones of God come with the same credentials, and more.

Question: If this is so, where and how was the NAME of Jesus prophesied?

Answer: In the Old Testament, in the Book of Isaiah the Prophet, Chapter 7, Verse 14, His name is given:

> "Therefore the LORD himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel."

You will note that in Matthew, Chapter 1, Verses 21-23, and in Luke, Chapter 1, Verse 31, reference is made to this verse. However the child was named "Jesus".

All names have meanings. The name "Immanuel" is a Hebrew name which means "God Saves". It was not an uncommon name for the Jewish people.

However, at the time of the birth of Jesus, the Jewish people no longer spoke Hebrew, but instead they spoke Greek and Aramaic. The name "Jesus" in Greek means "God Saves", thus we have a language breakdown as follows:

Immanuel.....Hebrew

Jesus.....Greek

Joshua.....Aramaic

God Saves.....English

Thus Jesus fulfilled the prophesy for the "NAME" that He was to come in.

Concerning the "virgin birth", there is nothing uncommon about virgin births. Nearly 10,000 virgins conceive and bear children in this country alone. In addition, the Founders of Hinduism (Krishna), and Buddhism (Gantama Sidhartha), were also conceived and born of virgins. This statement can be easily varified by asking your obstetrician.

Question: As you have said, Jesus was a common name and that there were probably many people who had the same name. What about His address?

Answer: The address for Jesus was given in the Book of Micah, Chapter 5, Verse 2, which states:

"But thou Bethlehem Ephratah, thou be little amongst the thousands of Judah, out of thee shall he come forth unto me, to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth from of old, from everlasting."

If you will look in the Book of Matthew, Chapter 2, Verse 1, and the Book of Luke, Chapter 2, Verses 4-7, reference is made to this verse.

Jesus was born in Bethlehem on December 25th, 1 B.C. by Christian reckoning. He was circumcised seven days later on January 1st, 1 A.D.

Here we must pause an examine several facts that are a matter of records that were kept by both the Jewish people and by the Romans who were rulers over Palestine at that time.

Many children were born in Bethlehem during that period of time and several were named "Jesus," "Joshua," and "Immanuel". Thus we must search further for proofs that Jesus was who He said He was.

Question: There is a lot of argument concerning the date of His birth. What is the true date for the birth of Jesus and/or of His Advent?

ANSWER: The dates given for Jesus are found in the Book of Daniel, Chapter 9, verses 24-27. In the first verse it states:

> "Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon the Holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness and to seal up the vision and the prophecy, and to anoint the most holy."

Here Daniel gives a time limit to the Jewish people to come out of their apostateship and idol worship, of 70 weeks, which are 490 days. As each day with the Lord is as a year, this is 490 years. (See also Numbers 14:34 and Ezekiel 4:6).

In the next verse it tells us when this is to begin:

> "Know therefore and understand, from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah, the prince, shall be seven weeks, and three score and two weeks: The street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous time."

There were several decrees made regarding the restoration of the temple and of Jerusalem. The first decree was by Cyrus for the restoration of the temple (Ezra 1). The second decree was by Artaxerxes I to stop the rebuilding of the temple (Ezra 4). The third decree was by Darius for the renewal of the rebuilding of the temple.

The fourth decree was by King Artaxerxes II to Ezra the prophet to rebuild the city of Jerusalem. This order was given in the 7th chapter of Ezra.

In the dated King James Version of the Bible, this order was given in the year 457 B.C. But Ezra pinpoints the exact day of the year in Chapter 7, verse 9, which begins:

> "For upon the first day of the first month...."

The Jewish calendar began with the Vernal Equinox, which occurs on March 21st, by Christian reckoning.

Reversing the Christian Calendar into the B.C. Era, we back up the calendar, in essence, December, November, October, September, etc. Thus March 21st, 457 B.C. is equal to 456.778 years B.C., or 456 years and 0.778 portion of the next year.

Here Daniel also starts breaking down the seventy weeks. The first breakdown is seven weeks, or 49 days, or 49 years.

This is the period of time that it took to rebuild the city of Jerusalem. For 49 years the Jewish people reconstructed the city that had been destroyed by the Zoroastrians. The reconstruction period ended on the first day of the first month in 408 B.C. or March 21st, 408 B.C. (456.778 - 49 = 407.778 years).

After this period they were under the rule of the Zoroastrians, the Greeks, and finally the Romans. This period of oppression lasted for the next 434 years, or 62 weeks. This was indeed a very troublous time for the Jewish people for they were under various oppressors and the hardships were many and severe.

Now the time had come for the fulfillment of the prophecy. The date, March 21st, 27 A.D. (407.778 - 434 = -26.222 or 26.222 years into the A.D. Era.)

The Jewish people had a prophecy that had to be fulfilled before the advent of the Messiah. This prophecy comes from the Book of Malachi, Chapter 4, verse 5, which states:

> "Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord."

Christianity today accepts John the Baptist as the return of Elijah, even though John the Baptist said he was not Elijah but "one crying in the wilderness, make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias (Malachi)". (See John 1:21).

John fulfilled the prophecies for the return of Elijah, thus he is believed by the Christians as the return of Elijah, and rightly so.

John the Baptist began his ministry on March 21st, 27 A.D. John taught the Jewish people, through the verses of the prophets of old, that the Messiah was coming. In fact, he told them that the Messiah was already amongst them. Thus we come to the last week of the seventy weeks:

> "And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make desolate, even until the consumation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate."

Here Daniel gives the final week and he states that "In the midst of the week" sacrifice and oblation will cease.

Whenever a Manifestation of God is on the earth, sacrifice and oblation ceases, because all of mankind are to turn to the One Who manifests the Attributes of God and to hear His Word through this Messenger from God.

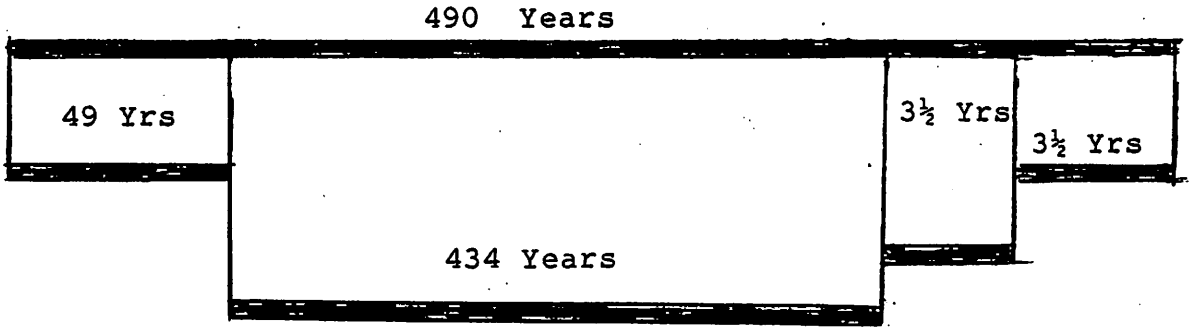
John the Baptist taught and prepared the way for the coming of the Messiah for 3½ years. On September 21st, 30 A.D. John baptized Jesus in the River Jordan and Jesus, becoming aware of His Mission, began His Ministry.

Jesus taught the people for the next 3½ years, at the end of which time His Ministry was cut off by His martyrdom at the hands of those to whom He had come. This occurred on March 21st, 34 A.D.



Thus the dates for Jesus were fulfilled by One Who was born in Bethlehem, whose name meant "God Saves," and Whose date was seventy weeks from the order to restore and rebuild Jerusalem. (456.778 + 33.222 = 490.000).

Question: What was the Mission of Jesus?

Answer: During the 3½ years of the Ministry of Jesus, the Messiah, He taught the people the Revelation of Love and of a Kingdom that was coming. The people that He came to rejected His Teachings for many reasons, but mainly because they wanted the Kingdom right away and this carpenter's Son did not fulfill their imaginations of what they expected Him to be.

In addition, they did not separate the two promised Messiahs, or Anointed Ones of the House of David. The first was to be a Suffering Messiah, and the second a Reigning Messiah.

Thus Jesus, the Anointed One of the House of David, paid the price for the sins of the people to whom He came with His life's blood. Thus the Mission of Jesus was to atone for the iniquity of the Jewish people as stated in Daniel, Chapter 9, verse 24, which we previously covered.

Thus Jesus ben David came with the Golden Criteria, which is the CALLING CARD of the Manifestations of God and Their Promised Ones.

Question: Jesus is said to be the incarnate Son of God. Is this statement true?

Answer: The best source of information on this subject is the Bible itself.

If Jesus were the physical incarnate Son of God, He would not have been the Messiah or Christ.

The words "Messiah," "Christ", and "Anointed son of the House of David" are synonymous. "Messiah" is Hebrew, "Christ" or "Christos" is Greek; and the "Anointed Son of the House of David" is English.

So important is the geneology of Jesus that the first verse of the New Testament is as follows:

> "The Book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham."
> Matthew 1:1

In Luke, Chapter 3, verse 23-38, gives the geneology of Jesus all the way back to Adam. It begins in the following manner:

> "And Jesus himself began to be about thirty years of age, being the son of Joseph, which was the son of Heli."

The (as was supposed) is an interpolation and is NOT part of the original text. This had been inserted to support the incarnate God theology.

However the best support for the fatherhood of Jesus was given in Romans, Chapter 1, verses 3-4, which state:

> "Concerning his son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh; and declared the Son of God with power , according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead."

Note that the verse says that He would be made of the seed of David. The seed is the male sperm, and can only come from the male side of the family of David. Mary does not qualify for the seed of David, she was not a descendant of David, but of the Tribe of Levi (Luke 1:36) and she carried the ovam, and not the seed of David.

He would be "declared" to be the Son of God, not BORN the Son of God, as He was so designated.

And the final proof lies in His resurrection from the dead. When Jesus was teaching the people, the Scribes and the Pharasis asked Him for a sign that He was who He claimed to be. To this He replied.

> "But he answered and said unto them. An evil and adulterous generation seeketh a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas; for as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whales belly; so shall the son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth." (Matthew 12:39-40)

According to the Scriptures, Jesus died on a Friday, (the day before the Sabbath) and His body was gone from the tomb on Sunday morning, (the morning after the Sabbath). See Mark 15:42 for the day before and Mark 16:2 for the morning after.

As this was the ONLY proof that Jesus gave that He was the Messiah, it requires a very careful examination.

From Friday to Sunday morning is not three days and three nights, but rather 2 days and 2 nights:

Friday.....Friday Night

Saturday.....Saturday Night

Did Jesus fulfill His own promise? Let us examine what really happened, beginning on Thursday night, the night of the Last Supper. According to Luke, Chapter 22, Verses 33-34, it states:

> "And he (Peter) said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison and to death. And He said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny thou knowest me."

All of Christianity is aware of what happened that night. Peter, who was the strongest believer in Jesus, the one who proclaimed Him as the Christ, did NOT believe in Him on Thursday night, and did not in fact believe in Him until Sunday night. According to John, Chapter 20, verses 19, 22, which state:

> "Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors where shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them. Peace be unto you. And when he had said this he breathed on them, and saith unto them, receive ye the Holy Ghost."

Thus we have the three days and the three nights when the SPIRITUAL body of Jesus, those that believed in Him, were dead in their spiritual beliefs:

Thursday Night.....Friday

Friday Night.....Saturday

Saturday Night.....Sunday

The physical body of Jesus did not qualify because it was only in the tomb 2 nights and 2 days. It was by the spiritual resurrection from the dead by His believers that He fulfilled the only PROOF that Jesus gave the people that He was the Messiah.

Question: What about those people who believe that Jesus was was the incarnate son of God? Where do they stand?

Answer: To believe that Jesus was other than the Son of David, is to believe in and follow the Anti-Christ. Christ means the "Anointed son of the House of David." Therefore anyone who believes otherwise is against Christ or Anti-Christ. In I John, Chapter 2, verse 22, it states:

> "Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is Anti-Christ, that denieth the father (Joseph) and the son (Jesus). See also I John 2:8, 4:3 and II John 7)

Anyone who says that Jesus is not the "Anointed son of the House of David," and who says that Joseph is not the father of Jesus, is a liar and an Anti-Christ.

God is a Spiritual Being and is not confined by the spectrum of time as those in the physical realm are. To say that God would divide Himself up, just for the sake of this planet, and come to this world in the form of corporal existence, is to utter the greatest of lies.

Jesus said that all those who believe in Him are sons of God, and He gave Christianity but a SINGLE prayer, the Lord's Prayer, which begins. "Our father who art in heaven...." not "My father...." which He would have said had He been the physical son of God.

This is the cloud that Jesus ascended into heaven above on, for the people cannot see Him because of the cloud, the incarnate god lie, thus they do not see the Words that He gave to the people. They see only the stories about Him and not the Truth of Him.

Question: You call Jesus the "Suffering" Messiah. Why do you distinquish Him as such?

Answer: One of the major problems that has existed in the Judo-Christian world is that of not recognizing that there were TWO Christs or Anointed Ones prophesied in the Old Testament. According to Zechariah, Chapter 4, verses 12-14, it states:

> "Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side thereof? And he answered again, and said unto him, What be these two olve branches which through the two golden pipes empty the golden oil out of themselves? And he answered me and said, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my Lord. Then said he, These are the two anointed ones (Christs) that stand by the Lord of the whole earth."

When Christianity was usurped by the Trinitarian doctrine, they had created a god that had no equal. Therefore they had to credit Him with things He did not accomplish.

They called Him the King of Kings, although He had no Kingdom in this world, nor did He have any descendants to reign as kings.

They called Him the Prince of Peace, yet He said in Matthew, Chapter 10, verse 34:

> "Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword."

But what He did do was to fulfill the prophecies for the "Suffering" Messiah. For example, in Zechariah, Chapter 11, verses 12-13. It states that he would be betrayed:

> "And I said unto them, if ye think good, give my price; and if not forbear. So they weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver. And the Lord said unto me, cast it unto the potter; a goodly price that I was priced at of them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the Lord."

Judas Iscarot betrayed Jesus for thirty pieces of silver. After he had seen what he had done, he went back to the temple and threw the thirty pieces of silver inside. The priests wouldn't accept this "blood" money for the temple, so instead they used it to buy a field to bury those who had no place to be buried. Even today these places of burial are called "Potter's Fields."

In the Book of Psalms, Chapter 34, verse 20 it states:

> "He keepeth all his bones; not one of them is broken."

In John, Chapter 19, verse 33, it states that none of the bones of Jesus were broken. It was the custom in those days to break the bones of anyone who was put to death, yet the bones of Jesus were not broken.

In the Book of Psalms, Chapter 69, verse 21, it states:

> "They gave me also gall for my meat; and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink."

While Jesus was on the cross or stake, He asked for water and instead of water they gave him gall, mixed with vinegar. (See John 19:29, Matthew 27:34, 48).

The Soldiers would cast lots for his cloak (Psalms 22:18; Mark 15:24; and John 19:24).

He would be buried with the rich (Isaiah 53:9; Matthew 27:57-60).

And that He would be betrayed by a friend (Psalms 41:9; Mark 14:10, 43-45; Matthew 26:14-16).

But the most notable of the additional proofs are these from the Book of Psalms, Chapter 22, verse 16, and Zechariah Chapter 12, verse 10 Respectively:

> "For dogs have encompassed me; the assembly of the wicked have enclosed me: they pierced my hands and my feet."

And:

> "And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications; and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn."

When Jesus, the Anointed son of the House of David, was martyred, He had nails driven through His hands and feet. After He had died, a soldier pierced His side with a spear.

There are still more, for He suffered vicariously (See Isaiah 53:4-5; 53:6, 12; Matthew 8:16-17; Romans 4:25; I Corinthians 15:3): He was hated without a cause (Psalms 69:4; 109:3-5; John 15:23-25): He was smitten and spat upon (Isaiah 50:6; Mark 14:65; 15:17; John 19:1-3; 18:22): And false witnesses accused Him (Psalm 27:12; 35:11; Matthew 20:60-61). These were but a few of the many prophecies fulfilled by Jesus, the Anointed son of the House of David.

All of the prophecies for Jesus involved His rejection by the people to whom He came, and dealt with the sufferings that He was submitted to by the people.

Question: If this was the Mission of Jesus, to be the "Suffering" Messiah, What was the purpose of His existence?

Answer: The purpose of ALL of the Promised Ones of God is to change the animal man, into a Spiritual being with the same attributes of Love, Mercy, Justice, Generosity, Fidelity, etc. as the Creator.

Jesus brought to the world the Love of God, and compared it to the Love of a son for his father. Jesus also brought to the world a New Law from God which He told the people to follow. Instead of Ten Commandments, He increased the number to Twelve, which included "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." and "Love thy neighbor as thyself for the love of me."

Jesus, the Suffering Christ, led the Perfect Life, as had Those Who were born of the Holy Spirit before Him.

Mankind opposed Him, as they have opposed all of the promised ones, because He brought change into the world. They felt threatened, they felt their seats of authority slipping from them, so they tried to destroy Him.

But what He brought to mankind was not destroyed. His Teachings of Love and His prophecies for the Kingdom of God here on this earth.

The New Testament is the inheritance that He gave to the people. This is His Book of Prophecy which included the prophecies of the coming of His Successor, the Reigning Messiah, and the coming of two more Manifestations of God.

Question: Who were those born of the Holy Spirit before the Advent of Jesus, the Christ?

Answer: Those that are born with the Holy Spirit are actually easy to detect, if one looks at the civilizations that existed in the pre-Christian Era.

The first was Adam, the beginning of the God Consciousness of mankind. From Him came the Great Adamite Civilization and later the Great Sabian Civilization. Under His Guidance came the Prophets; Seth, Enoch, Noah, Salih, Hud, and Abraham.

The second was Moses, the Law-Giver, or Interlocker, the first of the descendents of Abraham by his wife Sarah. From Him came the Great Israeli Civilization that culminated in the time of King David and King Solomon.

The third was Krishna, the first of the descendents of Abraham by his wife Keturah. From Him came the Great Hindu Civilization of the Twelveth and Eleventh Centuries B.C.

The fourth was Zoroaster, the second of the descendents of Abraham by his wife Keturah. During the time of the Great Zoroastrian Civilization, the tribes of Israel fell under the rule of the Zoroastrian Kings, as did the majority of the world that was civilized. The time of His coming was 1000 B.C. Zoroaster made a prophesy that He would return in a 1000 years and that the Zoroastrians would be able to find Him by following a star. Those who are familiar with the Christmas story about the three Wise Men, or MAGI, would be surprised to find out that the Magi were Zoroastrian priests who came to see the return of Zoroaster in the personage of the Promised one of Judah.

The fifth was Qantama Sidhartha, the third descendant of Abraham from his wife Keturah. From Him came the Great Buddhist Civilization. Buddha made a prophesy that there would be FIVE Buddhas (or Enlightened Ones) and that He was the first of these Buddhas and that the FIFTH Buddha would be a UNIVERSAL Buddha, and that He would unite all the peoples of the world into one All-Encompassing Faith.

The sixth was Jesus, the Christ, the second of the descendants of Abraham by his wife Sarah. From Him came the Great Christian Civilization, which reached its climax in the 4th Century A.D. Jesus was the Second Buddha of the prophecies of Qantama Sidhartha.

Question: Were the other three Enlightened Ones prophesied by Jesus?

Answer: Yes. Briefly, He prophesied the Advent of Muhammad, (which means the Comforter, Counselor, or Paraclete). This He did in John, Chapter 16, verse 7, which states:

> "Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away; for if I go not away, Muhammad (the Comforter) will not come unto you: but if I depart, I will send him unto you."

(See also John 14:16, 26; 15:26). Muhammad was a descendant of Abraham by his wife Hagar, through his son Ishmael. From him came the Great Islamic Empire. Muhammad was the third Buddha.

The second one that was prophesied by Jesus, was the Bab (Which means "Door" or "Gate"). Of Him Jesus spoke these words in the Book of John, Chapter 10, verse 1, which states:

> "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth (the Kingdom) not by the Bab (door) into the sheephold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a theif and a robber. (Those who stoled the Revelations of God from the people.)

The Bab came to Persia in 1844 A.D. or 1260 A.H. and was martyred in 1850 A.D. by the Muslims. The Bab was the fourth Buddha and He was also the Forerunner of the third one prophesied by Jesus, the Christ. He was a descendant of Abraham by his wife Hagar, and was a direct descendant of Muhammad.

The third one that was prophesied by Jesus was the Reigning Messiah, the return of the Christ, The SECOND Christ or Anointed son of the house of David. His name was Baha'u'llah, (which means, "Glory of God," "Glory of the Father," "Spirit of Truth,"). Of Him Jesus spoke these words in the Book of Mark, Chapter 8, verse 38, which states:

> "Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and my words in this adulterous and sinful generation: of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed when he cometh in Baha'u'llah (the glory of his father) with the holy angels." (See also Matthew 16:27; John 11:40; Psalms 19:1).

Baha'u'llah was a descendant of Abraham through his first wife Sarah, and He was also a direct descendant of King David, through Solomon. He had sons, with His eldest son, 'Abdu'l-Baha succeeding Him, as the first King. The son of Abdul-Baha, Charles Mason Remey succeeded him, as did his son. The Davidic Throne is alive and in the world today.

Baha'u'llah also fulfills the prophesies for all of the other religions of the world, including the Jewish, Hindu, Zoroastrian, Buddhist, Christian, Muslim, and Babi Faiths. He is the fifth Buddha, the Universal Buddha, and it is through His Revelations that the world will soon become united into one All-Encompassing Faith.

Thus are the FIVE Buddhas completed with the Advent of Baha'u'llah.

Question: Did Jesus prophesy the advents of any other promised ones of God?

Answer: The answer to this question is yes. In fact He prophesied the advents of the BRANCH, which was 'Abdu'l-Baha, the "Center" of the Covenant of Baha'u'llah, and the Promised One who presented the world with the governmental body of the Kingdom; the "Universal House of Justice," and the re-establishment and successorship of the Davidic Throne forever more upon this planet.

Jesus also prophesied the return of the "Lamb," which stands BEFORE the Throne (thus not a High Prophet or Manifestation of God). The Lamb breaks the "Seven Seals" which are the SEVEN SEALED Books of those who came before the Advent of the Bab and Baha'u'llah.

These Seven Sealed Books are: (1). The Chronological Book in Stone of the Adamites, the Great Pyramid of Gizeh: (2). The Old Testament of Moses: (3). The Baghavagita of Krishna: (4). The Vestas of Zoroaster: (5). The Triplicas of Qantama Sidhartha: (6). The New Testament of Jesus: and (7). The Koran of Muhammad.

This promised one, Leland Jensen, is the establisher of the Kingdom of God here on this earth. He is to gather the 24 Elders who are the disciples of Baha'u'llah; the 144,000 people who are Israel under its new name; the angels of the Tribe of Dan (of whom he is a descendant); and to warn the people of the Four Winds of Destruction that will soon come to this planet.

This promised one, Leland Jensen, come to this world with the same credentials, the "Golden Criteria", that all of the promised ones of God have been prophesied to come by. His NAME, DATE, ADDRESS, and MISSION, are prophesied by ALL of the previous Promised Ones of God.

The proofs or Golden Criteria of this last promised one can be obtained by writing to:

This is the conclusion of this discourse.
